REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to disclose, in combination with all the limitations, first and second electrodes, third and fourth electrodes, a vibrator provided with the first and third electrode, an electrode base provided with the second and fourth electrode, a vibrator pedestal for fixing the vibrator onto the electrode base and an electrode terminal connected to the first and fourth electrodes and performing an input and output of electric charges from the exterior and the vibrator having a mass performing an undriven vibration and two oscillation plates for supporting the mass and the oscillation plate supporting the first surface of the mass and second surface opposite in a parallel manner and the vibrator is operated through vibrational energy to change a capacitance by controlling a distance between the first and third electrodes and a distance between second and fourth electrodes provided at the vibrator.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
